

Illusion

Jordan Rakei

Out there lay the shadows
Bound by blood
Three streams in a mess of love
Unshaken lays the animal
Tied to us
Defending its only love
And I believe
Of a sweet soul filled with lust
Building what's in front of us
Send the ravens on their way home to utopia

Just give it up
It's never nothing
I'm losing myself again in fairytales
Just live it up
And keep it running
I'm losing myself again in fairytales

Out here given the time and place
I've shown to throw this mess away
Unshaken lays the animal saving face
Watching worlds around him race
See the believers of a sweet soul hiding faces
Slowly as they dissipate
Is it free will
Or do we surrender to our fate

Just give it up
It's never nothing
I'm losing myself again in fairytales
Just live it up
And keep it running
I'm losing myself again in fairytales

Give it up
Live it up
Give it up
Live it up
Live it up
Live it up

Just give it up
It's never nothing
I'm losing myself again in fairytales
Just live it up
And keep it running
I'm losing myself again in fairytales
Losing myself in fairytales
Losing myself in fairytales
