

Oasis

Jordan Rakei

Tell me can you hear
Messages are turned up loud
Struggling to move through the open crowd
Finding an oasis
Reasons you had stayed about
Thinking it was time for some answers now

Woke up on the wrong side
Feel victim of a slow night
Try to breathe, but the pain in my chest won't go by Stand up, I'll be alright
Just fishing for an alibi
Try to leave, but the voice in my head won't stay quiet

Downstairs to a dark room
Feel the light of the full moon
In a place, where I'm finding an angel in you
I'm scared, I'm finding it's lonely
I'm finding it's always on me

Tell me can you hear
Messages are turned up loud
Struggling to move through the open crowd
Finding an oasis
Reasons you had stayed about
Thinking it was time for some answers now

I'm up and away
Feel victim of a long stay
Try to speak, but the sound of my voice ain't fail safe
I'm scared, I'm finding it's lonely
I'm finding it's always on me

Tell me can you hear
Messages are turned up loud
Struggling to move through the open crowd
Finding an oasis
Reasons you had stayed about
Thinking it was time for some answers now

What's the reason, that I can't leave?
Is it treason, you ask of me?
What's the reason, that I can't leave?
Is it treason?

What's the reason, that I can't leave?
Is it treason, you ask of me?
What's the reason, that I can't leave?
Is it treason?

Tell me can you hear
Messages are turned up loud

Finding an oasis
