

Signs

Jordan Rakei

The grass is always greener when the fields all mine
And I'll lose my hero's journey as the years gone by
And the stories still unwritten, there's no sense of time
Oh my, oh my

I live out alone, no room for yourself
I'm trying to focus, it's my story to tell
I'm human as well (as well), well (as well), well (as well)
I'm human as well (as well), well (as well), well (as well)

And I'm running round in circles
Flying high above the ground
And I'm searching out the echoes
And the signs, of who we are
Who we are

I've seen a lot of danger coming round my way
Finding love in every moment, hope it's not too late
And the stories now unfolding once upon a time
Oh my, oh my

I live out alone, no room for yourself
I'm trying to focus, it's my story to tell
I'm human as well (as well), well (as well), well (as well)
I'm human as well (as well), well (as well), well (as well)

And I'm running round in circles
Flying high above the ground
And I'm searching out the echoes
And the signs, of who we are
Who we are

(Who we are)
Would you kindly tell me
(Who we are)
Trying to find the reasons for
Who we are
Someday we'll know it all
