

The Light

Jordan Rakei

Happier than ever before
No second chances
Cause I love my friends and my opponents
You were still the same as me
Only I enhance it
Magic lives in this sacred moment
I am here and I'm still free
See my flame's still dancing
My eclipsing for your enjoyment
Feel this conscious energy
And on these romancing
Life is better when you're open

Live today, if only for one moment
The light of your life is everywhere
Live today, if only for one moment
The light of your life is everywhere, where Everywhere, where

I am not the sun of your imagination
Yet the sun to your harmony and brighter places, oh
I am just a higher tangible dimension
Yet I'm roaming 'round this walking life with sweet intention
Darkness can't survive within this lighter presence
Hold on to the moment like you truly meant it, oh
Take a break from everything with no exception
Just to lie amongst the ambience that is presented

Live today, if only for one moment
The light of your life is everywhere
Live today, if only for one moment
The light of your life is everywhere, where (it's everywhere)
Where, where

Now let's live a life we thought we never had
Just know everything is all development
And I hope you see for what it is instead
Unknown pleasures in this environment
Now let's live a life we thought we never had
Just know everything is all development
