Trust

Jordan Rakei

You keep on running from the danger
Though I can see it's in your head
Every time that you feel
A rush of blood, your heart turns to steel

You keep on finding all these reasons
To hide the fact you're in denial
All the ways that you brace
The discourse that leaves a bitter taste

Trust
But make it real for me
Everybody falls into it
Everybody makes mistakes
Living out their fantasies
Love
But make it real for me
Everybody falls into it
Sometimes makes mistakes
Living out their fantasies

You keep on lifting all these angels
Though I can see you've lost your faith
Every time that you feel
A rush of blood, your heart turns away
Turns away

Though you keep trying to be faithful, yeah
When they keep pushing me away
All the noise, and you brace
The discourse that leaves a bitter taste

Trust
But make it real for me
Everybody falls into it
Everybody makes mistakes
Living out their fantasies
Love
But make it real for me
Everybody falls into it
Sometimes makes mistakes
Living out their fantasies

Trust
But make it real for me
Everybody falls into it
Everybody makes mistakes
Living out their fantasies
Love
But make it real for me
Everybody falls into it
