

Unguarded

Jordan Rakei

For a while
I let myself imagine
That fear of love
Had me
But deep ties
20-odd years of habit
Can break down
From me
These days
I'm finding time to reappear
Or fall away
From it
If I could
Pen my old self a letter
I'd give him life for better

I'm unguarded
I saw you in surrender
Found somebody
Who had shown me forgiveness

I let it break away
I break away
I let it break away
I break away

There's no easy way to live without love
There's no easy way to live without you
I'm so tired
I'm so tired
And so helpless
I can't believe it's come to

There's no easy way to live without dreams
There's no easy way for dreams to come true
I'm so tired
I'm so tired
But I gather myself I'm coming for you

I'm unguarded
I saw you in surrender
Found somebody
Who had shown me forgiveness
