

Wildfire

Jordan Rakei

Doesn't this seem like a wildfire
See that burning bridge right through the mirror
Doesn't it make you realize
Only you can keep this flame alight

You know I'm not ready for you
Yet you ask me for forgiveness
You said you got something to prove
So you target when I'm weakest

I hope it gets easier
I hope things get better
I'm hoping for many things
But many things don't last
No, they don't last forever

Doesn't this seem like a wildfire
See that burning bridge right through the mirror
Doesn't it make you realize
Only you can keep this flame alight

I carry the weight of the world
Getting worn down by the burden
Stay married to your own self
Seems like nothing ever hurts ya

I hope it gets easier
I hope things get better
I'm hoping for many things
But many things don't last
No, they don't last forever

Doesn't this seem like a wildfire
See that burning bridge right through the mirror
Doesn't it make you realize
Only you can keep this flame alight

Doesn't this seem like a wildfire
See that burning bridge right through the mirror
Doesn't it make you realize
Only you can keep this flame alight

I'm not the type to let it go
Holding on for more of you
Not more of meaning, I suppose
Devour me slowly
Set foot underneath the flame, now up in smoke
Pay me back like it's always in my control
I jump on this race horse
Devour me slowly

Doesn't this seem like a wildfire
See that burning bridge right through the mirror
Doesn't it make you realize
Only you can keep this flame alight
