

Pointless

Jordan Sweeto

Look the other way and let's pretend.
(Like you don't know, like you don't care)
The state of me is coming to an end.
(See in your eyes, beneath your hair)
When I'm thinking of you thinking of me.
There's just no way that I could watch you leave me.

How am I supposed to turn away like you're not there?

Everything I do for you seems pointless, it's pointless.
You're falling down around me, I can't do this anymore.
Doesn't matter what I do cause it's pointless, it's pointless.
Everything I do for you.

Wait another day and you can see.
(See where it ends, see how it goes)
How everything comes back to you and me.
(To hold you close, to let you know)

How am I supposed to close my eyes like you're not there?

Take a breath and the mood takes you away.
Oh I can't give you up, I can't let you go.
And I resort to breathing like it's the last thing left.
I won't leave you standing alone.

Everything I do for you seems pointless, it's pointless.
Everything I do for you seems pointless, it's pointless.
Doesn't matter what I do cause it's pointless, it's pointless.
Everything I do for you.

Everything I do for you seems pointless, it's pointless.
You're falling down around me, I can't do this anymore.
Doesn't matter what I do cause it's pointless, it's pointless.
Everything I do for you.
Everything I do.
