

THEMSELVES

Jordan Ward

She's gotta be gamed-up, man
She's gotta be bad
She's gotta have the game, man
She's gotta be bad, man
She's gotta be bad

Now any girl with me, she must be gamed-up too
'Cause people play themselves
Don't stop making your bread just because you know I got you
That's how people play themselves
How many times you gon' fuck that bag up?
Least you got a real one and got these hoes mad
You gotta turn your passion to a hustle
Something to fall back when shit go bad

I been there, you don't want that
Crashing out with no brake pad
It turned me to a fucking savage
But I need someone to match me

It's not easy
Askin' why I chose this life, I must be crazy
Took a three-hour flight out to Vegas
The life is calling me
Come on

Now any girl with me, she must be gamed-up too
'Cause people play themselves
Don't stop making your bread just because you know I got you
That's how people play themselves
How many times you gon' fuck that bag up?
How many times you gon' fuck that bag up?
This for all the girls
How many times you gon' fuck that bag up?
Working hard
You gotta turn your passion to a hustle
Come on

Yeah
Now, baby, please don't be confused
I wanna be providing for you in every way
But we're stronger when we lay our own foundations
That's the only reason I'm always outta state, baby

It's not easy
Asking why I chose this life, I must be crazy
Took a three-hour flight out to Vegas
So girl, be all you can be
Come on (Yeah)

'Cause any girl with me, she must be gamed-up too
'Cause people play themselves
Don't stop making your bread just because you know I got you
That's how people play themselves
How many times you gon' fuck that bag up?
You gotta turn your passion to a hustle
How many times you gon' fuck that bag up?

You gotta turn your passion to a hustle
