

Why

Jordana

Why do, why do
Why do I give a damn?
Give a damn
Why should, why should
Why should I even care?
Why should I even care?

Always got some sort of problem going on
Going on
Praying to a God I don't even believe in
Oh, God, what's wrong?
All of the shit I did in my youth
Seen in the darkest point of view
Anxiety's the house
What the hell am I supposed to do with that?

Why do, why do
Why do I give a damn?
Give a damn
Why should, why should
Why should I even care?
Why should I even care?

Always got some sort of problem going on
Oh, God, what's wrong?
Scary truth to acknowledge
But I'll do it anyway
I don't have a say
What is inside of that brain of yours?
Always thought that there was so much more
The past has made it tainted
There's no going back

Why should I care?
Why do I give a damn?
Why should I care?
Why do I give a damn?
(That's what I'm talking about)
