

I, I
I need to fast forward from this boy, yeah
If I'ma be the woman, the woman that you really need
'Cause this is weighing down on me
And I'd rather be making love instead of making war
What are we here for?

Fast forward
Fast forward, forward, forward, baby
Fast forward, forward, forward, can we

Be each others rock and lean?
Instead we fight over every little thing
I'd rather take all the aggression, you know what I'm guessing
Instead of stressing, we should be addressing, oh
Can we edit out the unwanted scenes?
We was off the script and it's crediting
Let's do this take again, you know we can do much better
We acting like we fed up when we just need to shut up with a bit of

Fast forward
Fast forward, forward, forward, can we
Fast forward, forward, can we
Fast forward
Fast forward, forward, forward, can we
Fast forward, forward, forward

The future looks bright
It's everything I like and
Our dream is enticing
[?] for rewriting, baby
Ain't no rewinding
Let's not both be trifling
This could get exciting, ooh
Love the part where we be making love long night
Let's skip them scenes when I get on your nerves
And you're on mine
Can we

Fast forward
Fast forward, forward, forward, can we
Fast forward, forward, forward, can we
Fast forward, forward, can we, can we
Can we, yeah
Fast forward
