Used to be a lot I thought I knew for sure
Funny how your pride is silenced in the storm
Low peaks, valleys high
Blindin' silver lines
Don't always wanna buy the lesson that's in store

So tell me, can You hold me? (hm)
Comfort me when I start feelin' lonely (hm)
Sometimes I let my feelings control me (hm)
And a lotta people love me, but You know me (hm), mmh

I'm tryna find my place
Keep my pace
Make my waves
But I can't push the weight
In my strength
I need Your grace

I know I can't do this alone
Alone, alone
Alone, alone
Can You see me through the unknown?
Unknown, unknown
I can't do this alone

I don't always win the battles in my mind (mind)
Surrender to it all and know that I'll be fine (fine)
Runnin' for my truth
That's a race I'll lose
Fallin' on my knees, but still I rise

And that's because You hold me (hold me)
You comfort me when I start feelin' lonely (lonely)
And still, I let my feelings control me
And a lotta people love me, but You know me, You know me

I'm tryna find my place
Keep my pace
Run my race
But I can't push the weight
In my strength
I need Your grace

I know I can't do this alone
Alone, alone
Alone, alone
Can You see me through the unknown?
Unknown, unknown
I can't do this alone, mmh

So tell me, can You hold me? (hold me)
Comfort me when my heart's feelin' lonely (lonely)
I don't want my feelings to control me
And people say they love me, but You know me, yeah

I'm tryna find my place
Keep my pace

In this race
But I can't push the weight
In my strength
I need Your grace

I know I can't do this alone
Alone, alone
Alone, alone
Can You see me through the unknown?
Unknown, unknown
I can't do this alone

Alone, alone
Alone
Alone
Can You see me through the unknown?
Unknown, unknown
Unknown, unknown
I don't wanna do this alone
