

Virginia Is For Lovers

Jordin Sparks

You became someone so close
That person I could trust
Why did it end up this way?
What happened to the both of us?
I, I'm tearing up inside
I'm on a rollercoaster ride

Thinking of those memories
How your touch was so soft
Your eyes, they were so green
I would have never known how much
You'd come to mean everything to me

Virginia is for lovers
And I wonder where do all the others go
And your heart belongs to another
And I'm leaving
Virginia is for lovers anyway

No matter how long were apart
I find it hard to let go
I'm sitting here so restless
Time is moving so slow
I hate that I'm looking back
Reminiscing on photographs

You were like my other half
We were perfect on our own
Then everyone came back
Got harder to get you alone
See the hurting on my face
You were looking the other way because...

I never got to tell you
You walked away
You left me there
And you won't change no matter what I do
But I still care
And I'm still here, yeah yeah

Virginia is for lovers
And I wonder where do all the others go
And your heart is with another
And I'm leaving
Virginia is for lovers anyway