

Feelings

Jorja Smith

Any other day, any other time, I'd be on my way
There was a time when you tried
And you said
"Why would you fight what was inside?"
That wasn't part of the plan
Now I know that I should go

Looking for some reasons
Tell me there's something wrong with it
Tell me there's something inside that I need
You know I'm not gonna stay the night, oh

I just need one reason
I know there's nothing wrong with this
Hard to pretend it's not what I want
Way too close you'll read my mind

I know you got your reasons, yeah
I know the meaning
I know you're still healing, baby
But you're still appealing
Hope you don't think I'm reaching
But I got feelings to the ceiling
And I'm still in my feelings gyal
You know you're very well-seasoned

I know you got your reasons, yeah
I know the meaning
I know you're still healing, baby
But you're still appealing
Hope you don't think I'm reaching
But I got feelings to the ceiling
And I'm still in my feelings, baby
You know you're very well-seasoned

I'm liking the way
That you talk to me nice
You know what you're doing
Don't look in my eyes, oh-oh-oh
That one time when I said what I said when the rum was over
Only been two times that we've done what we did when I put it on you
When I put it on you

Looking for some reasons
Tell me there's something wrong with it
Tell me there's something inside that I need
You know I'm not gonna stay the night

I just need one reason
I know there's nothing wrong with this
Hard to pretend it's not what I want
I want you to read my mind

I know you got your reasons, yeah
I know the meaning
I know you're still healing, baby
But you're still appealing

Hope you don't think I'm reaching
But I got feelings to the ceiling
And I'm still in my feelings, baby
You know you're very well-seasoned

In my feelings, I'm feeling my sorrow
I want you today, I want you tomorrow
I want you to stay, I'm not gonna borrow
I'll steal you forever, I'll take you Morocco
Me and you together, you're driving me loco
I want to be with you, I don't want to be solo
J Hus aka Elle Zolo
When you call me I'll be there coming pronto

But I kept it G, I never spent a cobo
Make her splash and I dash, you know that's the motto
She's driving me, I'm inside a moto
Your usna feels like I just won the lotto
Touching me, she feeling my muscle
I spend time with you, I'm pausing my hustle
Pour something in my cup, me and you are a couple
Badman, but sometimes I want a cuddle

I know you got your reasons, yeah
I know the meaning
I know you're still healing, baby
But you're still appealing
Hope you don't think I'm reaching
But I got feelings to the ceiling
And I'm still in my feelings, gyal
You know you're very well-seasoned

I know you got your reasons, yeah
I know the meaning
I know you're still healing, baby
But you're still appealing
Hope you don't think I'm reaching
But I got feelings to the ceiling
And I'm still in my feelings, baby
You know you're very well-seasoned
