

Killing for Love

José González

What's the point if you hate
Die and kill for love, kill for love
What's the point with a love
Makes you hate and kill for

You've got a heart on fire
Bursting with desire
You've got a heart filled with passion
Will you let it burn for hate or compassion

What's the point if you hate
Die and kill for love, kill for love
