

Envy

Jose Guapo

Keep it real with your dawg, that's the first part
Never fall out 'bout no bitch and lose your player part
Keep on shining on these niggas 'til you break they heart
I know he wasn't right from the fuckin' start
Let's talk about hatred and envy
Let's talk about hatred and envy
Let's talk about hatred and envy
I can see it from a mile away and feel it

You wonder why I'm anti friendly
Stay afloat, can't let 'em get near me
It be the closest ones to you havin' envy
Nowadays you got to watch 'em more than your enemy
Heart cold, won't fold, I don't trust a soul
Front line, front door, yeah we on go
Yeah, gettin' money was the easy part
Niggas play [?]
Yeah, niggas really want you crucified
Tell a hater eat a dick, commit suicide
All these pillow talkin' niggas need to talk to shorty
I don't gossip like a bitch I leave it to the ho's

Keep it real with your dawg, that's the first part
Never fall out 'bout no bitch and lose your player part
Keep on shining on these niggas 'til you break they heart
I know he wasn't right from the fuckin' start
Let's talk about hatred and envy
Let's talk about hatred and envy
Let's talk about hatred and envy
I can see it from a mile away and feel it

Nigga holdin' us like a nigga owe him some Nigga's still gon' complain if you throw him some Stiff arm, I don't give a fuck, show him somethin'
[?], cup full and I'm rollin' one
They locked me up, came home, yeah I'm on to some
He think he on to some
But I'm on to him
I seen niggas turn foe just about an O'
Shit, the way that I work that ain't how it go
[?] niggas make sure they ain't starvin'
Cause them same niggas robbin' will rob you
Don't let a nigga know too much, that cause some problems
No weapon for me shall prosper
But I keep that chopper

Keep it real with your dawg, that's the first part
Never fall out 'bout no bitch and lose your player part
Keep on shining on these niggas 'til you break they heart
I know he wasn't right from the fuckin' start
Let's talk about hatred and envy
Let's talk about hatred and envy
Let's talk about hatred and envy
I can see it from a mile away and feel it
