In the darkness
In the darkness
In the darkness
We make love
In the darkness
In the darkness
In the darkness
We make love

Black magic, the promise, the premise
The airless, the sea we travel onto
Arrive at the very beginning
Of where we started
Journeying onward into the light
And deeper into shadow
Life will bring trust, it will bring
And stole the memory you unravel

You messing with my emotions (messing with my emotions)
You messing with the way I feel about you (way I feel about you)
You messing with my devotion (my devotion)
To what I know (to what I know)
And what is real (and what is real)

Your love, your love (your love, your love isn't)
Your heart, your heart (your heart, your heart brings the)

Black magic, the promise, the premise
The airless, the sea we travel onto
Arrive at the very beginning
Of where we started
Journeying onward into the light
And deeper into shadow
Life will bring trust, it will bring
And stole the memory you unravel

I feel so close to you (I feel so close to you)
I feel so close to you (I feel so close to you)
I started with the feeling of together (started with the feeling)
So why do I fear getting close to you? (So why do I fear getting close to you?)

Losing you would mean the worst had come true (come true)
Holding you is all I seem to want to do

Black magic, the promise, the premise
The airless, the sea we travel onto
Arrive at the very beginning
Of where we started
Journeying onward into the light
And deeper into shadow
Life will bring trust, it will bring
And stole the memory you unravel

In the darkness
In the darkness
In the darkness

We make love
In the darkness
In the darkness
In the darkness
We make love

In the darkness
In the darkness
In the darkness
We make love
In the darkness
In the darkness
In the darkness
We make love
