

Tomorrow

José James

when the winter turns to spring
+ the cold has run away

+ my memories of you are in a blossom's early trace in this quiet evening news of a yesterday embrace

when a moment's solitude finds me searching for your face

I love you
in your eyes

I am born
of tomorrow's rise

last winter
was so lonely

last winter
was so long

+ all my days
were for you only

+ now it seems that I'm alone

in the smile on your face in your laughter in a room

I can hear it when you call saying live my life anew in the warm new Sun's embrace + in your love that never fades there's a question + a space won't you please let me explain that I love you

in your eyes

I am born
in tomorrow's rise

last winter
was so lonely

last winter
was so long

+ all my days
are for you only

+ now it seems
that I'm alone

in a moment's healing grace all I know + all I do

came to find an inner way your destiny is calling you

you are born in tomorrow's rise

+ now it seems
that I know
