

I Miss You

Josef Salvat

Take me back
To the start
With everything I know now
With my weathered heart
I'm gonna hold the last six months
Weave them into something new
Something to believe in
Something beautiful for you

Oh, I miss you
The sun is on my face and I'm alive
And I miss you, but it's fading
I can see both sides now
I can see all the ways you built me up
The ways I let you down

I close my eyes and watch you read
I close my eyes and you are lying in the bath
A look of focus on your face
You gaze across and smile at me
But I can only take the last six months
Weave them into something new
Something that will live on
Something beautiful for you

Oh, I miss you
The sun is on my face and I'm alive
And I miss you, but it's fading
I can see both sides now
I can see all the ways I built you up
The ways you let me down
Oh, I miss you
The sun is on my face and I'm alive
And I miss you, but it's fading
I can see both sides now
I can see all the ways we built it up
The ways we let it down
Oh, I miss you
