

Queen of Brooklyn

Joseph Arthur

Beautiful Woman
Waves of my ocean
Forget about love
It's too early for us
And it's so hard to trust
With a heart of dust

We don't ever want to fight
From the feelings that
Break us down in the night
After we have shown each other
A fragile light
We don't ever want to fight

Powerful woman
Queen of Brooklyn
I know who you are we made it this far
And we both had to starve
To feel our hearts

We don't want to fight
From the feelings that break us
Down in the night
After we have shown each other
A fragile light
We don't ever want to fight
