Tiny Echoes

Joseph Arthur

Sometimes I feel like giving up Giving in to the dark Sometimes I feel like crying out Trying to speak from my heart

I wish you could hold me here Give a reason whats it's for I would try to become pure Tiny echo of the lord

Sometimes I feel like loving you Is all I have holding on Sometimes I feel like letting go It's a gift to be born

I wish you could hold me here Give a reason what it's for I would try to become pure Tiny echo of the lord
