Wait for Your Lights

Joseph Arthur

If you like the way you feel
I'll leave you alone
Tell me now, the things you'd steal
If you had a home
I guess it's pain, the skin you're in
Burning thru time
I'd like to see your face again
In the sunshine

I'm gonna wait for your lights
To come on
I'm gonna wait for your lights
To come on

And though now your brother's gone
He still sits with you
The little girl you used to be
So proud and so true
Walking thru the city streets
They bow down for you

I'm gonna wait for your lights
To come on
I'm gonna wait for your lights
To come on

I'm gonna wait for your lights
To come on
I'm gonna wait for your lights
To come on
I'm gonna wait for your lights
To come on
