

You Keep Hanging On

Joseph Arthur

I love you more than my pain
Says I should
I love you more when you're rain
Than the desert would

You say life's in the past
When we were strong
But I would love you to stay
Keep hanging on

(You keep hanging on)
Even when I tell you to go
(You keep hanging on)
Even when I ask you to leave
(You keep hanging on)
Even when I tell you to go
(You keep hanging on)
Even when I ask you to leave

I see you on the other side
Of your moon and your folded knife
And I wonder
How you came into my life

I know sometimes you're cold inside
But I still want you to be mine
It makes me wonder
Why you came into my life

I love you more like a dream
Than reality
I love the way that you seem
To be there for me

You say love is a church
And a crucifix
It will kill us in time
After saving us

(You keep hanging on)
Even when I tell you to go
(You keep hanging on)
Even when I ask you to leave
(You keep hanging on)
Even when I tell you to go
(You keep hanging on)
Even when I ask you to leave
