

Remember Me

Joseph Black

Can I get your attention please
Do you remember me
Bring up the memories
And I can't hold onto these
I'm in too deep
Can feel the bruises on my feet
I be feeling stupid when you leave
I'm praying for love I hope cupid hear me
Do you remember me
Bring back the memories
I've had a long night having bad dreams
Post traumatic stress it's just some things I can't un-see

Obsessed with love I think I been feeling my karma
I got a bullet proof heart but I guess you pierce through my armor
I don't wanna play any part of hurting you like any farther
Okay that's my cue to leave, I'll leave you lone for starters

One by one
I've been over run
I've been so infatuated
We had so much fun
One by one
Days turn into months
I'm not scared to play with fire
We only die once

I'm in too deep
Can feel the bruises on my feet
I be feeling stupid when you leave
I'm praying for love I hope cupid hear me
Do you remember me
Bring back the memories
I've had a long night having bad dreams
Post traumatic stress it's just some things I can't unsee

I'm in too deep
Can feel the bruises on my feet
I be feeling stupid when you leave
I'm praying for love, I hope cupid hear me
