

Sunsets & Heartbreaks

Joseph Black

You remind me of sunsets, fell in love on a beach
I finally feel wanted, what's next? I guess we'll see
If beautiful was ice cold, when you walking we done freeze
My stomach turn, you go home, but it's always been us three
You remind me of sunsets, so close but outta reach
My brain put out a signal but my heart never agrees
The things I do to just be us, I take to the extreme
So if I choose to go then will you wash me down in bleach?

Oh, did I take it too far?
Oh, did we take it too far?
I'm feeling heartbreak coming
I feel a heartbreak coming

You remind me of sunsets, fell in love on a beach
I finally feel wanted, what's next? I guess we'll see
If beautiful was ice cold, when you walking we done freeze
My stomach turn, you go home, but it's always been us three
You remind me of sunsets, so close but outta reach
My brain put out a signal but my heart never agrees
The things I do to just be us, I take to the extreme
So if I choose to go then will you wash me down in bleach?

Oh, did I take it too far?
Oh, did we take it too far?
I'm feeling heartbreak coming
I feel a heartbreak coming
