

Auburn

Joseph Vincent

It's been a forty, forty hour week
And now you're yawning, yawning half past three
You need to take a break, oh for goodness sake
There's no way that you can get back your time

And I can tell you're lonely, lonely there's no doubt
Even though you're beautiful inside and out
Just help me to understand

'Cause you deserve all the world and more
Just open up your eyes see what's in store

'Cause it's a Saturday afternoon
I'm just laying here in bed with you
Now everything's alright, it's alright

You've been stressing out for days
It's time to sit back, and watch that auburn glaze fill up the room
'Cause there's just no me, no me without you

Now I can tell you all the things that I think you wanna hear
But with actions speaking louder just to make it more sincere
Here's advice, just enjoy the ride, let the waves swing you back and forth
Now baby I'll pick up the slack just to make up for
All the time we missed when I was out on tour
Lean it on back you don't even have to ask
I said lean it on back 'til you reach your climax

'Cause you deserve all the world and more
Just open up your eyes see what's in store

'Cause it's a Saturday afternoon
I'm just laying here in bed with you
Now everything's alright, it's alright

You've been stressing out for days
It's time to sit back, and watch that auburn glaze fill up the room
'Cause there's just no me, no me without you

Without you in my life
You make it all better, you're one of a kind
And you take away the pain
Time to step back from it all
And be thankful for today

'Cause it's a Saturday afternoon
I'm just laying here in bed with you
Now everything's alright, it's alright

You've been stressing out for days
It's time to sit back, and watch that auburn glaze fill up the room
'Cause there's just no me, no me without you
