

Memory

Joseph Vincent

Caught a cab and drove away
I could ask for better days
It was all a memory
You're the only one for me

Look into your eyes and I'm feeling your pain
You know it didn't always have to end up this way
And I'm taking your baggage along with me
Oh ooohh whohh oooh

It should be much better
You and I said we would last forever
And yes I've been warned
It's the calm before the storm
Keep your eyes on the weather

What's mine is yours
And yours is mine
Until the day
That we divide

Oh I caught a cab
And drove away
I could ask
For better days
It was all a memory
You're the only for me

Tag a drag and think of you
Wondering what you're going through
It was all a memory
You're the only for me

Oh ooohh whohh oooh

Fight back, back down
No you're wrong, I'm right now
Like a top spinning
Circles over 'til it dies down

I just came to say
I'm so sorry babe
Too much pride
To just ever let you get your way

Time to breathe, get some air, let it out
Regretting those words coming out your mouth
One thing I can say
I'm keeping that promise that I made that day

What's mine is yours
And yours is mine
Until the day
That we divide

Oh I caught a cab and drove away

It was all a memory

Tag a drag and think of you
Wondering what you're going through
It was all a memory
You're the only for me

Oh ooohh whohh oooh

Every time
I see you cry
I wanna tell you
It will be alright

But we can't lie no more, my baby
It's about that time you already know
Call that final curtain
So the story goes

Caught a cab and drove away
It was all a memory

Tag a drag and think of you
Wondering what you're going through
It was all a memory
You're the only for me

What's mine is yours
And yours is mine
Until the day
That we divide
