

Beloved

Josh Baldwin

It's only by Your kindness that I have
Inherited such radical grace
You've seen the war torn places in my heart
But You never walk away, You never walk away

You call me Your beloved
You call me Your friend
Go before me in the battle
Stand beside me 'til the end
And You know my every failure
What I've done and where I've been
Still, You call me Your beloved
And You call me Your friend

Closer than the air that I'm breathing
Intimate, yet fiercely, You love
Long before my heart could believe it
You said that I was Yours, You said that I was Yours

You call me Your beloved
You call me Your friend
Go before me in the battle
Stand beside me 'til the end
And You know my every failure
What I've done and where I've been
Still, You call me Your beloved
And You call me Your friend

I owe it all to You
I owe it all to You
I came with nothing, but You
You gave me everything
I owe it all to You
I owe it all to You
I came with nothing, but You
You gave me everything

You call me Your beloved
You call me Your friend
Go before me in the battle
Stand beside me 'til the end
And You know my every failure
What I've done and where I've been
Still, You call me Your beloved
And You call me Your friend
