Josh Gracin

I finally learned
Found peace of mind
That this life
Is borrowed time
Page by page
Line by Line
Each word I write
Is his design

So I'll gladly carry with me
Every Second every memory
All the things I've done before he calls my name
All the sins that I've committed
Not forgotten but forgiven
Welcomed in when I let my last breath go
Home

We all can choose
Between two roads
Which way we go
He already knows

So I'll gladly carry with me
Every Second every memory
All the things I've done before he calls my name
All the sins that I've committed
Not forgotten but forgiven
Welcomed in when I let my last breath go
Home

When I walk
Through heavens gates
When I kneel
Before His Grace

I'll Be Home
I'll Be Home
