

Your Face

Josh Groban

I can see fire burning way out there
I can feel the cold wind across the bitter air
And it makes me wonder how we'll return
Where will we go, what will we do with all we've learned?

Well, I believe in all of us
I won't let this go to waste
I want someone I can touch
I want something I can taste
Holding on to what we must
The light ahead so hard to chase
But there is hope in all of us
And I can see it on your face
On your face (I can see, I can see)

And we're so connected but never more alone
We tell the world that we're special from the filter of a phone
I gotta be open cause life's meant to be shared
But how can I be my truest me when I'm so scared?
Oh...

I believe in all of us
I won't let this go to waste
I want someone I can touch
I want something I can taste
Holding on to what we must
Reach for feelings long erased
But there is love in all of us
And I can see it on your face
On your face (I can see, I can see)

And when we surrender what we had before
(Just be strong, it won't be long)
Just keep moving forward through that open door
Door...

I believe in all of us
I won't let this go to waste
I want someone I can touch
I want something I can taste
Holding on to what we must
The light ahead so hard to chase
But there is hope in all of us
And I can see it on your face
Your face...

And I've never been one to pray
Losing trust and losing faith
But there is God in all of us
And I can see Her on your face
(I can see, I can see)
On your face
(I can see, I can see)
Ooh...
(I can see, I can see)

I can see

I can see...
