

Anywhere You Wanna Go

Josh Kelley

A 1, a 2, a 1-2-3
Come on now
Listen up now

Tell you baby ain't nobody in the world can make me feel the way you do
You give me the shiver, yeah you give me the shake
You better believe I'm addicted to you
Your kiss is like a double shot shot on the rocks
Got it goin' down so smooth
If loving you is wrong, I don't wanna be right
So come on over let me lay down the groove, here we do

Anywhere you wanna go
(Come on I gotcha)
Anywhere you wanna go
(Come on now)
Anywhere you wanna go
(Listen up now)

Remember when I met you on the beach of California
We were laughing and a soaking up the sun
I fell to my knees with a cheers to you honey
Next thing you know the two become one
Lord knows I'd do just about any damn thing when it all is said and done
To keep my little pretty momma happy in love and always a havin' fun
Come on now now now

Anywhere you wanna go
(She said I gotcha, come on now)
Anywhere you wanna go
(Come on now)
Anywhere you wanna go
(I said I'll take you there baby, I'll take ya)

Put your hands in the air

(Listen up now)
Anywhere you wanna go
(Come on now baby won't ya)
Anywhere you wanna go
(Come on now)
Anywhere you wanna go
(Listen up now)
Anywhere you wanna go
(Na na na na na)
Anywhere you wanna go
(Listen up now)
