

Keeper

Josh Kelley

Here we are
All alone
In a room with two shadows
Waiting on us

Cupids here
His bow is drawn
Steady the arrow
Aiming for love

So hold me close like you mean it
And sway my fears here in the dark
Kiss these lips like your feigning
For a taste of loves sweet disregard
Oh, tonight tonight tonight
Your the keeper of my heart

Treat it right
Like its your own
Its wandered a lifetime
But it feels like its home

So hold me close like you mean it
And sway my fears here in the dark
Kiss these lips like your feigning
For a taste of loves sweet disregard
Oh, tonight tonight tonight
Your the keeper of my heart

Where its been
Ain't where it is right now
It went lookin' for answers
And you're what it found

Turn off the lights
Lock the the door
Love was a mystery
But its a mystery no more

So hold me close like you mean it
And sway my fears here in the dark
Kiss these lips like your feigning
For a taste of loves sweet disregard
Oh, tonight tonight tonight
Your the keeper of my heart
