

New Eyes

Josh Kelley

I'm seeing you through new eyes
The same but different new eyes
I almost missed it
New eyes, new eyes

Have I told you lately how good we are
Have I bought you flowers just because, just because Almost let myself do what I said I'd never do

But now I'm seeing you though new eyes
The same but different new eyes
I almost missed it
New eyes, new eyes

Ooh...
Ooh...
New eyes

Have you been listening when I say love
I guess I understand just
Saying its not enough
Saying it's not enough
If you open up yours
And look inside mine

You'll be seeing me though new eyes
The same but different new eyes
I almost missed it
New eyes, new eyes

Ooh...
Ooh...
New eyes

Almost let myself do
What I said I'd never do

But now I'm seeing us through new eyes
Were the same but different new eyes
We almost missed it
New eyes, new eyes
Falling all over again new eyes
Right back where we began
New eyes, new eyes

Ooh...
Ooh...
New eyes
