

Doorstep

Josh Levi

Oh God
I'm at your doorstep
Got lost, you I adore
I tried counting my footsteps
They led, straight to your door

I wonder
Too far to turn now?

Can't go back
Here at your doorstep
I'm just saying hello

It's amazing what I, what I'd do for love
I came from the Northside, and crossed the border
I didn't think about it
Looked up and it happened
It's amazing what I
What I'd do for you, girl

Saw you
And I should've known
I'd get
Myself in trouble
Blame it
On being alone, being alone, being alone
Should've
Thought way ahead
Should've
Planned in advance
Coulda/woulda
Anyways here I am, here I am

Oh God
I'm at your doorstep
