

KNOW BETTER

Josh Levi

You the one that gave me a reason
You the one that made me believe in
What everybody's chasing and dreaming
About at night
Always told two truths, then one lie
Knew all the bad then, but I went blind
But there's something about this time
This time, I say goodbye

I'm the one that caved in
I didn't know the game when
You're the only one that played it
There's no fun in love and war
What's done is done

I don't want my love back
'Cause I don't got none left
But I wish I woulda known better
I wish I woulda known better
Yeah
Spent my heart on ya
Emptied out my pockets
But I wish I woulda known better
I wish I woulda known better

I don't need a band-aid, I'm bleeding
I don't need your sorry, just keep it
It's me who let me guard down from defense
It's all your fault (All your fault, all your fault)
I saw the gun in your hand the whole time
But your touch had me out of my right mind
We were up to no good, it felt right
But it was wrong
Oh

I'm the one that caved in (Caved in)
I didn't know the game when
You're the only one that played it
There's no fun in love and war
What's done is done

I don't want my love back
'Cause I don't got none left
But I wish I woulda known better
I wish I woulda known better
Yeah
Spent my heart on ya
Emptied out my pockets
But I wish I woulda known better
I wish I woulda known better
Yeah

I wish I woulda known better
I wish I woulda known better
