Josh Levi

Hey Josh, I hope you're well, um, I just wanted to personally reach out and tell you just, like, how much I fucking love your song, um, and I love music but music is not, um, an area that I'm always like up to date in, like, it takes me like forever to listen to, like, any this song or single that comes out, but I wanted to tell you that, like, when I heard your song, I kid you not, it brought me to fucking tears Josh, like, tears. I don't know if it's what I'm going through at this time, just whatever it is, your song spoke to me so clearly. I've had... I've honest to God had it on repeat, which is so like, um, like, it just, I'm telling you, like, I fucking love your song so much, so, I can't wait to see what else you put out there and, yeah, your shit's in my playlist, consider me a fan
