

The Hummingbird

Josh Pyke

Heard your voice on the corner
Heard your boots on the stairs
Heard your keys, they were rattling the doors
Keeping you away from me

If you don't know distance
Then I don't know what this is
If you are not the hummingbird for me
If you don't know distance
Then I don't know what this is
If you are not the hummingbird for me
The hummingbird for me
Turn and twist like a gull on the breeze
It's a hummingbird I need

Too aware of the questions
Posed like fate accompli
You're not solid
You're ideas and vapour
You're not what I thought
You would be

If you don't know distance
Then I don't know what this is
So how are you the hummingbird for me?
If you don't know distance
Then I don't know what this is
So how are you the hummingbird for me?
The hummingbird for me
Turn and twist like a gull on the breeze
It's a hummingbird I need

That I need
That I need
That I need
(If you don't know distance)
(Then I don't know what this is)
(So how are you the hummingbird for me?)
That I need
(If you don't know distance)
(Then I don't know what this is)
(So how are you the hummingbird for me?)
That I need
(If you don't know distance)
(Then I don't know what this is)
(So how are you the hummingbird for me?)
