

Any Way They Come

Josh Ritter

Just a few tears is all I ask
To pay for what you've done
I'll take them any way they come

Just a few tears is all I ask
Now you've had your fun
I'll take them any way they come
I'll take them any way they come

I came here with nothing
I'll be gone before long
Tell me, whatever's left
Of the breath of a song?
But if that's all there is
It's more than enough
And it wasn't for nothing
I gave it all of my love
