

Shadows

Josh Ritter

Who put the shadows 'round your eyes?
Who drew the map and traced those lines?
There was a time they were so blue
Now they're not as blue as you
Who put the shadows 'round your eyes?

I'd take a rowboat out and swim
In that deep blue you saved for him
I'd dive as deep as I could go
Find out what I need to know
Who put the shadows 'round your eyes?

You wear an anchor for a smile
You drag your smile all over town
And even though your head's held high
It feels like you're gonna drown
You're going down, down, down

So come on, spend the night with me
If that spends well spend two or three
And I will spend the night with you
See I got my shadows, too
Who put the shadows 'round your eyes?
