

Hate How You Look

Josh Ross

It's hard to believe it
Girl that I'm seein what I'm seein
Don't wanna assume but it's seemin
Like you're havin the time of your life

I wasn't expectin
You'd wanna be the center of attention
Know just what you're doin while you're spendin
Time in some arms that ain't mine
Yeah I

Hate how you look in that one that you know I love red dress
Hate how it still gets my heart breakin beatin out my chest

Hate how you laughing and actin like what we had is gone
Girl it aint been that long

I
Hate how you got that up to somethin kinda look in your eyes
Hate how you're happier when I'm about to lose my mind
You look so good and damn that's why it feels so wrong
Girl I hate how you look movin on

Wish I could help it
Girl I don't know why I haven't left yet
I'm watching every second like a train wreck
Can't look away yet
As hard as I try
Baby I

Hate how you look in that one that you know I love red dress
Hate how it still gets my heart breakin beatin out of my chest
Hate how you laughing and actin like what we had is gone
Girl it ain't been that long

Hate how you got that up to somethin kinda look in your eyes
Hate how you're happier when I'm about to lose my mind
You look so good and damn that's why it feels so wrong
