

Later Tonight

Josh Ross

Later tonight, I'll drink you off of my mind
I'll dance with somebody new and think I'm finally fine
Then I'll just leave alone, I'll come back home on my own
And you'll be back on my mind a little later tonight

Little later tonight
Aw, baby, later tonight

Movin' on like I'm s'posed to
Gettin' back into that old me
Makin' friends that don't know you
In them places that ain't where you'll be

Ain't thought about you yet, but the night is young
Gotta get you out my head, but nothin' gets it done

Aw, baby, later tonight, I'll drink you off of my mind
I'll dance with somebody new and think I'm finally fine
Then I'll just leave alone, I'll come back home on my own
And you'll be back on my mind a little later tonight

Little later tonight
Aw, baby, later tonight

I'll be out with the boys, and we gon' be sippin'
They'll ask me how I been, I'll say I been livin'
I think I turned the corner, man, it's been different
I'll say it confident like I meant it, wait a minute

Ain't thought about you yet, but the night is young
That ghost up in my bed will probably get it done, get it done

I know that later tonight, I'll drink you off of my mind
I'll dance with somebody new and think I'm finally fine
Then I'll just leave alone, I'll come back home on my own
And you'll be back on my mind a little later tonight

Little later tonight
I'll try my best not to call your phone (Later tonight)
I'll tell myself to quit holding on (Later tonight)
I wonder why it takes so damn long
You'll be back on my mind a little later tonight

Later tonight
Later tonight
Later tonight
Later tonight
