

Matching Tattoos

Josh Ross

We left the cold in Tennessee
To go watch the sun sink in the keys
We had the top off my old Jeep
You took a break from kissing me
You said, "Hey, boy. Why don't we do something crazy."

I wonder where you are now
Sometimes I still think of how
We said something 'bout forever
But what's that mean at 22?
'Cause all that lasted are some matching tattoos

Do you ever tell them about us
When people ask you where you got it from?
Do you say it meant nothing
Or do you tell the truth?
'Cause I'm looking down at mine right now
And I'm right back there with you

I wonder where you are now
Sometimes I still think of how
We said something 'bout forever
But what's that mean at 22?
'Cause all that lasted are some matching tattoos

There will always be something between me and you
They say nothing lasts forever
But hey, girl
We know that ain't true

I wonder where you are now
Sometimes I still think of how
We said something 'bout forever
But what's that mean at 22?
'Cause all that lasted are some matching tattoos

'Cause all that lasted are some matching tattoos
All that lasted are these matching tattoos
