

Single Again

Josh Ross

I know I shouldn't say what's up
I heard you went and met someone
But I've got a little cold beer buzz
And he ain't here right now

I bet you if I took your hand
And we had a neon night slow dance
You'd be getting to forgetting all about him
And you'd be walking out of here without him

When you're single again
And you're thinking of me
Ya know, I got that same ole Tennessee
615 that you used to hit up
Half past where you at pick me up
When you're all over him
I hope you're all over me
I got a king-size bed
Just missing a Queen
Make me your first call after your last call with him
And you won't ever be single again

I got a cabernet with your name on it
A Slow drive on a Sunday, you can count on it
I'll treat you better than he ever did
Girl, when we're together, you won't ever wish

If you're single again
And you're thinking of me
Ya know, I got that same ole Tennessee
615 that you used to hit up
Half past where you at pick me up
When you're all over him
I hope you're all over me
I got a king-size bed
Just missing a Queen
Make me your first call after your last call with him
And you won't ever be single again
Oh, single again
Single again

When you're single again
And you're thinking of me
Ya know, I got that same ole Tennessee
615 that you used to hit up
Half past where you at pick me up
When you're all over him
I hope you're all over me
I got a king-size bed
Just missing a Queen
Make me your first call after your last call with him
And you won't ever be single again
Oh, single again
Single again
Single again
