

Another Heartache

Josh Ward

Loneliness is a feelin', you can't find it by yourself
But you can find a little comfort in the arms of someone else
I don't know where this is goin', and if you don't really care
If we're not talkin' 'bout forever, maybe we can take it there

'Cause I don't need another heartache, it never did me any good
One thing I know about a heartache, it never heals the way it should

When the sun comes up tomorrow, let's just call it what it was
'Cause I don't need another heartache, so baby let's don't fall
in love

Another round of what we're drinkin' always helps to ease the pain

A little close up conversation probably wouldn't hurt a thing
A couple dollars in the jukebox, one slow dance on the floor
As long as there's no expectations, we'll take this night right out the door

'Cause I don't need another heartache, it never did me any good
One thing I know about a heartache, it never heals the way it should

When the sun comes up tomorrow, let's just call it what it was
'Cause I don't need another heartache, so baby let's don't fall
in love

Aw don't fall in love darlin'

Aw here we go

I don't need another heartache, never did me any good
One thing I know about a heartache, it never heals the way it should

When the sun comes up tomorrow, let's just call it what it was
'Cause I don't need another heartache, so baby let's don't fall
in love

No I don't need another heartache, so baby let's don't fall in love
