

Change My Mind

Josh Ward

I finished my beer, was gonna call it a night
When you sat down on the barstool next to mine
Had to catch my breath, the way you smiled at me
And I knew from that look in your eyes, I wasn't ready to leave

I've given up on believin' that an angel was somethin' I was go nna find
But I'm thinkin' you could change my mind
Things are sure lookin' up
'Cause the way you look tonight
Could make a man fall in love
Yeah I wasn't lookin' for a woman to come and change my life
But I'm thinkin' you could change my mind

So you'd like to dance? Well girl I'm willin' to see How your hand in mine could cure these two left feet
I never liked this song but it sure sounds good
And girl holdin' you here in my arms, anything would

I've given up on believin' that an angel was somethin' I was go
nna find
But I'm thinkin' you could change my mind
Things are sure lookin' up
'Cause the way you look tonight
Could make a man fall in love
Yeah I wasn't lookin' for a woman to come and change my life
But I'm thinkin' you could change my mind
Yeah I wasn't lookin' for a woman to come and change my life
But I'm thinkin' you could change my mind
Oh girl you can change mind
