

Reasons

Josh Ward

Reason one

Girl, I've been missing you
All that I wanna do
Is lay around and have some fun

Reason two

I love that way you smile
I wanna stop and stare a while
Mm, just look at you

Oh, that clock on the wall spends all it's time ticking
I'm gonna spend mine loving and kissing
You in the kitchen while I'm spinning you 'round
I've got real good reasons to slow it down

To hell with that hourglass
We'll throw it right down the hall
I wanna get lost in that all-night-long
'Cause that's where it's at

Oh, that clock on the wall spends all it's time ticking
I'm gonna spend mine loving and kissing
You in the kitchen while I'm spinning you 'round
I've got real good reasons to slow it down

I could keep on listing
But I don't wanna waste another minute

'Cause that clock on the wall spends all it's time ticking
I'm gonna spend mine loving and kissing
You in the kitchen while I'm spinning you 'round
I've got real good reasons
I've got real good reasons
I've got real good reasons to slow it down
