

Say Hello To Goodbye

Josh Ward

What'd you do? You had it all
Like a fool you let it fall, you lost it all
I hope you had some fun
Now you're sittin' here drownin' in
A double shot of what might've been
Let me tell you friend
It's only just begun
And while you're asking yourself why
Say hello to goodbye

Yeah I'd like to introduce you
To lonesome days and lonely nights
I guess you'll have to get used to
All those tears in your eyes
Say hello to goodbye

I hope you like wakin' up
Starin' there at your coffee cup
As the sun comes up
On your table for one
'Cause now all you got is time
Say hello to goodbye

Yeah I'd like to introduce you
To lonesome days and lonely nights
I guess you'll have to get used to
All those tears in your eyes
Say hello to goodbye

Yeah I'd like to introduce you
To lonesome days and lonely nights
I guess you'll have to get used to
All those tears in your eyes
Say hello to goodbye
