

There's A Drink For That

Josh Ward

If you're halfway to town and your truck gives out
If your work, work, work's got you all beat down
If you go fishing and it starts to rain
Well, listen here, buddy, here's the thing

Well, there's a drink for that
Well, there's a drink for that
Whether you're in love or got a broken heart
Answer's waiting there behind a honky tonk bar
There's a drink, well, there's a drink for that

If you like a little fiddle and a steel guitar
If you got a little honey hanging on your arm
If you got an empty hand and a cigar lit
If one or two don't do the trick

Well, there's a drink for that
Well, there's a drink for that
Whether you're in love or got a broken heart
Answer's waiting there behind a honky tonk bar
There's a drink, well, there's a drink for that

As long as this world keeps spinning around
And people wanna get unwound

Well, there's a drink for that
Well, there's a drink for that
Whether you're in love or got a broken heart
Answer's waiting there behind a honky tonk bar
There's a drink, well, there's a drink for that