

Remember

Josh Wilson

24 hours, but they all feel like midnight
I'm searching for a sign of life
A single shred of sunlight
There's a hundred different verses I
Should be quoting right now
It's strange, but somehow
Not a single one sounds right

When I can't face tomorrow
I'll borrow hope from yesterday

Remember
Even when it hurts
Remember
Even if it gets worse
When I can't find You by my side
I will look back so I
Remember
Remember

Countless memories
Mountain tops and tragedies
God, You've always carried me
No matter what, You'll never leave

When I can't face tomorrow
I'll borrow hope from better days

Remember
Even when it hurts
Remember
Even if it gets worse
When I can't find You by my side
I will look back so I
Remember
Everything You've done
Remember
Just how far we've come
When I can't find You by my side
I will look back so I

God, Your faithfulness (Faithfulness)
Is my confidence (Confidence)
You have always kept (Always kept)
All Your promises (Promises)
God, Your faithfulness (Faithfulness)
Is my confidence (Confidence)
You have always kept (You keep all your promises)
All Your promises

Remember
Even when it hurts (Even when it hurts)
Remember
Even if it gets worse (Even if it gets worse)
When I can't find You by my side (I can't find You)
I will look back so I
Remember

Everything You've done (You have done so much)
Remember
Just how far we've come
When I can't find You by my side (I can't find You)
I will look back so I
Remember

God (God, I look back)
You are my (God, I look back)
Confidence ('Til I see it, 'til I see it)
Remember
You (God, I look back)
Keep all (God, I look back)
Your promises (Til I see it, 'til I see it)
God, You are my confidence
You keep all Your promises
Remember
