

This Is The Day

Josh Wilson

Another day, another excuse
Running from what I've been called to do
I put it off 'cause I'm too afraid
Always counting down to someday
Why do I feel so scared, so unprepared
When I know if I go, God, You're already there
I think it's finally time to stop the countdown

This is the day
I won't wait for someday
'Cause it never comes
This is the day
This life is not mine
And it never was
Time to make a change, time to start living
Not some other day, right this minute
I won't wait for someday
My life is Yours
This is the day

I'm so through wasting my time
So safe and totally uninspired
If my life is in Your hands
God, I'm making Your plans my plans
From now on instead I'm gonna shoot out of bed
Like a child of the God that rose from the dead
I think it's finally time to stop the countdown

This is the day
I won't wait for someday
'Cause it never comes
This is the day
This life is not mine
And it never was
Not some other day, right this minute
I won't wait for someday
My life is Yours
This is the day

There's no time for standing still
Nothing happens if I wait until
It's too late, it's too late, I won't wait
So even if I don't feel prepared
Even if I gotta do it scared
I won't wait, I won't wait, no way

'Cause it never ever comes
This life is not mine
And it never ever was

This is the day
'Cause it never comes
This is the day

And it never was
My life is Yours
Not some other day, right this minute
My life is Yours
This is the day
I won't wait for someday
My life is Yours
This is the day
My life's all Yours
This is the day
